Textbook

Textbook: Elements of Literature Books 1 & 2

Additional Suggested Books to Read:

Books: Hamlet by William Shakespeare
Tom Sawyer by Mark Twain
Animal Farm by George Orwell
The Crucible by Toni Morrison

General Course Goals: Literature is a subject where we can study and see people's core values and their attitude of the world and hardships around them. We must learn through author's writing and see the purpose behind what story they have created. Through the study of literature, we can learn about different worldly perspectives and yet understand how the fullness of God must be present in one's life. Through this course I believe students will further understand and gain knowledge of their beliefs and moral convictions.

Specific Objectives: The objective of this course is to have students read stories from different authors and understand their worldviews through a Christian perspective. Students will read a variety of stories that are tied to a specific kind of literary elements. Students will be able to enhance their reading skills by reading stories and understanding the focus of passages. Students will also learn new vocabulary words and their meanings in order to use them in real world situations and future education. They will use critical thinking skills through in depth discussions and a final essay.

Evaluation & Assessment

1. 20% - Mid-Term (Fixed)
2. 20% - Final Exam (Fixed)
3. 10%- Homework
4. 10%- Classwork
5. 10% - Project or essay (Fixed)
6. 10% Quiz and Chapter Test
7. 20% - Participation / Behavior

Project (PBL) & Creative Story

PBL Project: This creative project will allow students to act out a scene from Romeo and Juliet from a 21st century point of view. The students must demonstrate the scene creatively by making a movie, writing and performing a song, acting out a drama, etc. This will allow students to think critically about how language has changed throughout history, as well as the perspectives of young people.

Argumentative Essay: Students will choose from an assortment of arguments about the story of Romeo and Juliet. They will write an argumentative essay and use text and other resources to support their arguments.
